REPORTS

COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

The superintendents of the five districts desire to present, jointly, to the ninety-first session of Holston Annual Conference, the following report:

We extend greetings and hearty felicitations to all who have labored pleasantly and successfully during the year. We believe that success in the minister's field of endeavor is usually the result of intelligent planning and hard work. We greet none the less heartily all who have labored under difficult situations, whose joy has been in the consciousness of worthy service and whose success will need to be measured by other standards than dollars and numbers.

For the good health which the brethren of the conference for the most part have enjoyed, for the fine hospitality with which we have been received by the good people of East Tennessee and Southwest Virginia, for the finest crop season we have had lately, for all our opportunities for service, for the measure of success that has attended the labors of all who have contributed to the promotion of the Kingdom and for the grace that has sustained us we give thanks to the Great Father of us all.

More or less serious illness has hurt and hindered in the homes of some of the men of the conference. Of the brethren: W. L. Oliver, E. O. Woodyard, L. D. Hamil, G. W. Woodward, F. P. Sanders, and W. M. Dye have suffered painful and in some cases serious illness. Bros. Woodyard, Hamil and Woodward have had to relinquish their work completely.

Death has visited our ranks during the year and three of our conference members have fallen: Brother T. E. Goodmen of the Morristown Circuit, Brother J. S. Strange and Dr. J. M. Emert of the ranks of the retired men. At this moment our tenderest thoughts are for and with the bereaved families and friends. Sister Matney, wife of Brother G. W. Matney, also answered the summons of death. Sister Tarwater, mother of O. R. Tarwater, Sister Bull, mother of W. M. Bull also the daughter of Bro. and Sister Bull and a baby son of Brother and Sister E. C. Trentham have died.

Economic conditions have held in check some phases of the work and made the task of the preacher and his family a difficult one. Want has also touched the homes of many of our people. There is this significant fact that almost none of our people have been on the list of those seeking public charity. However there has been a fine spirit of cooperative helpfulness inside the membership. There was a time when one of our large city churches found it necessary for one half of the membership to divide what they had with the other half and save the necessity for outside help. These conditions have improved to the extent that the depression seems to be a thing of history in most of the Holston territory.

Quarterly Conference records show a gain in ministerial support with a good percentage of the charges promising increases in salaries and claims for next year. Other items of finance will show a healthy gain. This has been made possible by a fine cooperation of the laymen all over the conference to put the whole program of finance upon a more systematic basis and avoid the embarrassing rush of collecting at the last moment. We find that the charges that are anxious for the return of their pastor are, for the most part, the charges that have the bulk of financial burden out of the way a week or two before conference. They have that last few days to rejoice over the success of the year. While a man is rejoicing over a great victory he finds it easy to be charitable toward the fellow who helped him to it.

EVANGELISM

The records will show that revival fires have burned steadily all over the conference if not as brightly as in some of the former years of our history. At least one meeting has been held in nearly all of the four hundred and sixty-six preaching places of the conference. Out of these meetings will come a net gain in membership which will be gratifying if the quarterly reports do not suffer a slump in the annual conference report. We believe that the constructive evangelistic program that carries through the year and lays stress upon the need of a Savior of men and a Redeemer of human society in every service of public worship, in the home, in all places of conversation is what we need to make the world Christ-conscious today. We believe also that there ought to be certain climactic seasons in which for a week or two such a program ought to culminate in a sort of ingathering. Call it what you will but when we leave it out we suffer a lack of the very thing that has made our great church a distinctive force in the great religious movements of the last hundred and fifty years.

WORLD SERVICE

World Service giving will show an increase in most of our charges. It is hard to say what the plan of designated gifts has done to us. We got it during the depression and we do not know where we would have landed had we tried some other plan. Certainly the efforts of those concerned have lifted the totals of giving in certain departments. This, of course, has strengthened the grand totals. However our giving to straight, undesignated World Service has been pitifully small. Not many churches in our Episcopal Area but that have felt the help of some, if not all, of the great Boards. Some of our larger churches who have been served substantially by the Boards are doing comparatively the least toward coming up to the help of Zion in these days of supreme need.

Our conference is asked for approximately $20,000 for all World Service purposes for 1935. To be exact $19,922. This would represent a per capita giving of 40 cents. This is far below the per capita giving of the church at large. We believe that the program can be reached if all of the charges will devise some method of keeping constantly before the people the great causes. We think there is no better way than the disciplinary plan of World Service Councils and a World Service treasurer in each local church.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The Department of Religious Education is receiving a fine share of cooperative attention and interest over the conference. We get the general impression from our visitation, the Quarterly Conference reports and other sources that our church schools are getting into the swing of the movement for organized, constructive effort. The demand for departmentalization and a unified program is being felt and heeded in an increasing number of places. The number of Coaching Conferences, Standard Training Schools and Daily Vacation Church Schools reported indicates that the department is at work systematically.

Training Schools of special interest have been carried on under the leadership of the Department at Crockett Springs, Beaver Ridge, Knoxville, Maryville, Chestnut Hill, Chattanooga, Cleveland and perhaps another place or two.

The Summer School of Religious Education at Athens this year enjoyed not only an increase in attendance over preceding years but added interest, and also substantial promise that the enterprise is a permanent fixture on our conference calendar rather than an experiment.

The Holston Valley Larger Parish has been organized this year, embracing Kingsport, Fairfield and Lynn Garden, Fall Branch, Sargentsville and Kingsport Circuit charges. Much has been accomplished by way of unifying the program of these charges. The program not only includes the best in Religious Education but it seeks to provide a minister or lay speaker for every church within the parish every Sunday. The Maryville Larger Parish has successfully carried forward a constructive piece of work.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

Our Schools within the bounds of the conference are beginning the new year with good prospects. Chattanooga University has the largest enrollment in its history. Likewise Tennessee Wesleyan has registered a gain of twelve per cent in enrollment. Murphy Collegiate Institute has opened the year with new zeal and purpose with constructive plans for program extension. We commend the efforts of the authorities of these institutions to stem the tide of financial difficulties and keep them in the line of active service through a period during which many others have been compelled to close their doors.

ORGANIZED GROUPS

Work among the organized groups of the conference is being carried on, we think, with commendable interest.

The brethren of the Laymen's Association have sponsored a part of the work of the Department of Religious Education. They have contributed to the programs of District Conferences, sent out speakers to local churches, worked in the interest of our World Service program in the districts and in many other ways shown a spirit of concern and helpfulness. During the summer a promotional meeting drawing from the entire territory of the conference for attendance was held in the buildings of Holston Assembly Grounds. The attendance was not large but the effort was well placed and we commend to the conference and laymen the plan for your hearty support if such a movement should be scheduled for next year. A movement of significance has claimed the attention of the laymen and ministers of Knoxville and Knox County Methodism of both denominations. Two University professors, each prominent in his own denominations, engaged in a conversation concerning the need of a closer fellowship between the two churches in our territory. They, after consultation with leaders of the ministry, appointed a place to which they invited as many as would come. Several hundred men came and sat down together to eat and discuss their common interests. The fellowship was fine. We have met since with like results. The meeting has taken no special turn as yet. We do not know where God is leading us. We are letting Him lead.

The annual meeting of the Cincinnati Branch of the W. F. M. S. was entertained in Knoxville. The visitors were pleased with our East Tennessee hospitality but surprised at our climate. We had the first snow storm of the season. The Foreign Society also conducted a school of Missions on the Assembly Grounds with an attendance of more than thirty from over the conference. Had you noticed that the two women's organizations gave last year almost as much as the total of the entire conference giving to World Service?

The young people of the conference have been busy. The Epworth League Institute at Holston Assembly Grounds reports double the number in attendance over last year. We recommend special effort on the part of the Holston Assembly Association to provide better housing facilities for next year. We do not believe that the present equipment is adequate to take care of so large a group in a way to safeguard the best interests of our young people. Several Epworth League Union Organizations are being promoted with good interest. A camp for girls and a camp for boys was promoted on the Assembly Grounds.

RESERVE PENSION FUND

The Reserve Pension Fund leaders have labored under severe handicaps and difficulties. Dr. W. M. Dye has been compelled to practically finance his own program of promotion as reports will show. Some progress has been made in the way of securing estate pledges and contacting prospective donors. In spite of illness he has been at the task. The district superintendents have crossed his trail in many places as we have moved about the districts. We earnestly solicit the hearty cooperation of both ministers and laymen of the conference in this most worthy enterprise.

CHURCH PROPERTY

Beginning with the Virginia end of the conference we wish to outline, in brief, the extent of building and improvements. Approximately $500.00 have been spent in improvements upon the Radford church and parsonage property. The interior of the church has been brightened and the parsonage has been painted. A new roof has been put on the church at Riner, also electric lights installed in both church and parsonage. The total cost of this work is approximately $200.00. Rehoboth church on the Franklin charge has been painted, also new carpet for the aisles and pulpit platform. A six-roomed parsonage is under construction for the Greendale and Glenford charge, located in Greendale. The cost will be $2000.00. A splendid basement room has been finished under the Elizabethton church at a cost of about $1500.00. Two Sunday School rooms have been added to the Kingsport plant. A new parsonage has been built and paid for at Mt. Hermon on the Heiskell charge. The cost was about $1000.00. A new basement room is almost finished in the Burlington church at a cost of $1000.00, most of which is paid. All will be paid by the time the building is finished. The South Knoxville church has been repainted. Trinity Parish House has been recovered. The Le-noir City church has been repainted and decorated. A new lighting system has been installed at New Salem and the construction of two new Sunday School rooms is under way. The East Main Avenue Trustees are considering an offer that has come for the purchase of their church plant. Conditions of sale will involve either abandonment or relocation. The Andersonville parsonage has been redecorated within and painted without. A beautiful new educational building costing several thousand dollars is nearing completion at Clinton. Parsonage at Crossville has been redecorated inside and out and an addition made to the church building. The church grounds at Dayton have been beautified and the parsonage redecorated. The parsonage at Jacksboro has been completed. At Jellico the parsonage has been redecorated and the metal work of the church repainted. New furnaces have been installed at LaFollette and at Loudon. At Oakdale the parsonage has been repaired and painted and the church lawn graded. The dormitory for girls at Patton Community Center school has been completed and the parsonage almost finished which when finished will be one of the best in the conference. Church and parsonage at Rockwood have been painted. Church and parsonage at Sunbright have been repaired. Vine Grove church building has been completely overhauled and the parsonage repaired. An addition has been made to the parsonage at Well Springs and the church building has been papered and painted. The Harriman district parsonage has been repaired. District Superintendent J. M. Hampton has contracted to sell the Tennessee Valley Authority ten of the church buildings located in the area of the proposed Norris lake. Perhaps the number to be sold will reach fourteen by the time the dam is completed. Buildings at North Athens have been repaired and painted. Three churches have been repaired and painted on Cleveland circuit. At East Ridge the brick and sand are on the ground and paid for to erect their new temporary church needed to accommodate their increasing church school and congregation. At Griffiths Creek, on the Coalmont charge, a new church is to be built. The Jasper circuit has rebuilt the parsonage at Jasper. Numerous other minor repairs have been made throughout the conference.

Reports will show that a great deal of indebtedness of long standing has been reduced this year. Of this some cases should have special mention. Last minute reports come that the cash has been raised to pay the debt of $3500.00 at Big Springs on Cleveland Circuit. Vestal has consummated refinancing plans which reduce their debt close to $10,000.00. Park City, Burlington and Oakwood will report reductions that will total above ten thousand dollars.

MINISTERIAL ACTIVITIES

Another successful session of the Summer School of Theology at Athens is reported. This work under the direction of the Commission on Courses of Study is meeting in a fine way a great need in the church. In these days of tremendous social and religious movements we need a trained ministry to rightly discover and interpret to our people the current issues which are to make us or break us.

We, your servants in the superintendency, verily believe that a thoroughly trained ministry will insure a wholesome loyalty to our church program and policies. We are embarrassed to have to plead with our own brethren for loyalty to our own policies and programs which should be of common interest since they are ours by virtue of our common heritage. The strength of our great church proves the value and success of our system and method of approach to our task. Unquestionable loyalty to our church policies on the part of our ministers will seldom fail to produce the same attitude on the part of the brethren whom they serve. A man should be dead sure of his attitudes before he proclaims allegiance to any cause. A man has a sacred right to think as he pleases but when he discovers that he has suffered a shift in attitudes he should, rather than enter into a one man protest against the mother institution that has nurtured him and that feeds him, seek a more congenial atmosphere for an outlet to the powers and reaches of his soul.

TEMPERANCE

The cause of temperance has suffered a stunning blow. Not in the annals of our national history has a public issue taken so surprising a turn as the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution. We went sleepily to the polls and in complacent assurance lost to our public enemy number one. Since then our blood pressure has been mounting steadily with the realization of what has been done to us. We are in a measure favored in our Holston Territory in that our state laws prohibit the sale of drinks stronger than three point two beer. This has not saved us from the devastating movements of the bootlegger, the transporter and the smuggler. Our cities and towns and country places are filled with drinkers and drinking. Beer and hard liquors have legal sales in the state of Virginia. All of our Bristol District is in Virginia. Already hundreds of so-called beer-joints and several whiskey dispensaries are operating almost day and night. Thousands of dollars are being poured into these places. Public drunkenness and automobile accidents show a marked increase in the last few months. In the rest of the section covered by the conference exactly twice as many deaths from automobile accidents than the same time last year are registered and the same ration of increase of less serious accidents. It is to beg the question to say simply that we deplore the situation.

OTHER SOCIAL IMPLICATIONS

Some other social implications catch our attention. The Government work that is being carried on in our midst has brought a measure of prosperity to our Holston country. This has helped greatly to relieve economic conditions. But it has brought social conditions which, for the time being, at least, present grave problems to the church. The Government is taking care of the social and recreational needs of the people in the immediate territory of Norris City. It is reported that religious services are also under the supervision of the T. V. A. We quote from a statement of the Chairman of the Local Home Missions Council committee: "The T. V. A. is in complete charge of all religious activities at Norris. Dr. C. C. Haun is the contact man for the Government, and we ministers go there to serve, only, and when, we make a date with him for such services." Time and space forbid that we say more than that the usual social problems are arising which come with the shifting populations.

We are beginning to feel that in our section some of the effects of the activities of certain groups such as Communism and other similar movements which have proven themselves in other sections of the country to be enemies of the church and all of our American institutions.

We deplore a noticeable laxity on the part of parents in our

Methodist homes in the matter of the practice of religion in the home. The passing of the family altar and the coming of the radio and the substituting of literature from the magazine rack of the corner drug store for the literature of the church have contributed to the making of a different atmosphere.

OUR PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENTS

We look with hopeful eyes toward our progressive movements within our territory.

In December of this conference year we were called by our Bishop to a retreat of the district superintendents of the Area. There we sat down together to try to get a perspective of the trend of events. The fellowship, the wise counsel of some of our leaders, and the spiritual strength gained has helped us all throughout the year's activities.

The Promotional Conferences which were carried throughout the Area left their wealth of information, inspiration and helpfulness with us.

Certain denominational contacts which we have had in the year, such as that growing out of the appointing of a conference committee to jointly study the exchange of territory, and other more or less significant gestures make us hope for the early joining, upon some satisfactory basis, of the forces of our great Methodisms.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. RAGAN,
W. D. WILKINSON,
C. W. SULLIVAN,
J. E. MILBURN,
JOE M. HAMPTON.

Standing Committees and Boards

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

It would be difficult to mention a more important phase of the work of the Church of Christ than Christian education, taken in all its implications and possibilities. Without it there is no way for the Church to avoid sterility if not death; and at the same time wherever the spirit of the Church is normal, Christian education is inevitable.

These facts place upon the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church a responsibility that is not receiving the attention that sooner or later must be given to it. If we are to have the intelligent grasp of Christian truth and ideals that are both a prerequisite and a part of Christian life, and if we are to have any great share in applied Christianity in a day that is starving for that application, then we as a body and as individuals must take seriously our educational tasks.

Religious Education in the Local Church, under the direction of Brother H. G. Williamson has, through the year now closing, continued its advance of the past years. The report of that division, soon to follow, will show this. But even so, there are vast areas, geographical, mental and spiritual, that remain to be developed. No greater step to this end can be made than through the personal initiative of the pastor.

Some gains were made during the past year in our educational institutions. We have had a share in the general increase of attendance that has attended the schools of our nation. Also, as a succeeding report will show, something of a start was made toward facing the financial needs of Murphy Collegiate Institute and Tennessee Wesleyan College. But these gains are not at all proportionate with the merits and gravity of the situation. Indications are that we shall have to aggressively attack the problems of our schools or suffer terrific losses which it would be difficult to regain, and yet which would have to be regained should the losses once be sustained and should our Conference fill its place in the moral and religious life of society.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. LEWIS,
Chairman of Board of Education.

REPORT OF THE DIVISION OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

We, the Board of Education, hereby express our confidence and faith in the administration of our several Conference Educational Institutions and rejoice with them in the increased enrollment which they enjoy this year. The University of Chattanooga can boast of the largest enrollment in its history. Tennessee Wesleyan College is proud of the 14 per cent increase in students over that of last year. Murphy Collegiate Institute, in spite of many handicaps, is moving into new avenues through which it hopes to do a peculiar and much needed service to its constituency. Pittman Community Center, working under the directions of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extensions, is pressing forward with a splendid program.

Your board wishes to ask that each pastoral charge support these institutions and especially do we ask that the two schools, Tennessee Wesleyan College and Murphy Collegiate Institute, be continued as an object of Conference benevolences and that this Conference ask the membership of the Church to give during the year 1934-1935, $6,000 to the support of these schools, $3,600 of which will go to Tennessee Wesleyan College and $2,400.00 to Murphy Collegiate Institute.

Your board wishes to ask the Cabinet to allocate to each District and in turn the District Superintendent in each of the Districts allocate to each local charge an amount equal to 5 per cent of pastor's cash salary. The amount to be reported at next Annual Conference in that part of the report calling for Conference benevolences.

WALTER A. SMITH,

THE DIVISION OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION IN THE LOCAL CHURCH.

This brief report has to say concerning a great educational enterprise in our local churches aggregating 50,000 pupils and 5,000 teachers. In attempting to bring Christ and His manner of life to these the Board of Education feels that Religious Education is a valid and Christian approach. It is not some extra activity, but rather is integral to all our work. Financial support has come from near 100 charges, but even fewer charges than this are desperately in earnest about using the principles and spirit of Religious Education in getting the work of the Church done. Too many of our pastors still look upon Religious Education as so many Vacation Church schools, or Leadership Training classes, etc., whereas we need to see that this is a way of living together in order that all the group may become increasingly Christian. To this end we urge all our pastors to cooperate, not only in securing financial support, but in the actual working out of the objectives which make up our common task.

The budget for the year is as follows:

Respectively submitted,

J. W. BROYLES,
Chairman Division.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL SERVICE

We as Christian ministers and laymen stand in the midst of a changing order. And we do well to remind ourselves that this presents unusual opportunity for the spreading of the Kingdom of God, and for the insistent interpretation of our problems in the light of the mind of Christ. Each man of us has the responsibility of pressing down upon himself and his people the demands of a Christian society.

Among ourselves the immediate need arises, and we heartily commend certain action already begun in our Conference body in providing a sustentation fund, to secure a ministry for neglected fields. This is a positive step toward bringing our salaries to a closer equity, and sharing together in our common ministry. This sharing and brotherhood needs to be extended into other relationships.

We further commend the attitude toward closer cooperation looking toward the union of Church groups; especially, the increasing favorable sentiment for the reunion of Methodism in America.

We do have a Gospel which is concerned with the welfare of all men, and one that speaks of all of life's relationships. We have responsibility, therefore, as Christian ministers not necessarily to suggest formulae for governments, or industry, or for international affairs, but rather to demand that government and business and international relationships shall be executed according to the teachings and spirit of Jesus.

Certain very obvious conditions show need for this, such as, the inequality between races before the courts and in relief aid and labor, but most prominently in education. In industry profits still stand above personality, while unemployment represents 13 per cent of our population. To this the Gospel of the right of every man to work at honest labor and to find means for the respectable support of his family, must be preached.

Further, hate-producing nationalism is taking the place of a worthy patriotism in many parts of the world. We ourselves are party to this with our increasing Navy, and our greedy interest in foreign markets. We need to remember that our Gospel can never be nationalized, for it is concerned with all nations.

To preach this Gospel in this time of chaos we must attain to a certainty that comes to men out of a life that has faced God, and into whose attitudes the Spirit of God has come.

Signed:

DANIEL L. JONES,
DEWEY JENKINS,
W. C. DANIELS,
J. M. DEW,
J. W. BROYLES, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

The Methodist Episcopal Church has in the past, does now, and always will maintain that a totally abstinent world is the only reasonable goal to be accepted by the Church of Jesus Christ. Varying conditions have at times called for varying methods, but the objective has never been lost sight of.

The tragic conditions now prevalent in city, village and country; the return of the saloon in even worse form than in former days, conditions which are even now attracting attention of the Government in spite of the vast economic plans being carried forward, attest the wickedness and evil of the whole liquor business. We maintain that not one single promise of the wet interests has been fulfilled. In the State of Tennessee alone, where a large force was placed at work at the State House in Nashville in anticipation of the vast sums to be received from the sale of beer as promised by the wets, these forces have been reduced to the vanishing point and the revenue promised is yet to be discovered. In every city and state in the nation the reports from the police departments show increasing accidents due to drunken driving, while arrests for drunkenness have increased in some places to more than 300 per cent. In the city of Chicago where a survey was made by the notoriously wet Chicago-American, a survey which certainly would not be made in the interests of the dry forces, there was revealed conditions among the children of a half dozen high-schools which beggar description. The report of these conditions is contained in a report to the Congress of the United States by Senator Shepherd of Texas.

We the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church pledge again our undying hatred of the whole liquor business and plead with every man and woman within the Church to pray and teach and work and vote for the driving out of society that business which has damned more souls, wrecked more homes and debauched more lives than any other tool of the devil the world knows. We recommend whole hearted cooperation with our Board of Temperance and Reform in teaching in the Church school and in the public congregation; in securing the teaching in the public schools the truth regarding the evil of liquor in any form; in observing Temperance Sunday and in receiving the collection for the Board for this work.

A REPORT OF THE COMMISSION FOR COOPERATION OF THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY

Your Commission has been busy under the regulations adopted by you last year.

The Commission organized with the following officers: Chairman, J. M. Hampton; Vice-Chairman, W. B. Morgan; Secretary, R. A. Kilburn; Treasurer, R. L. Stapleton. It outlines its activities and appointed committees to function as follows:

1st. With matters concerning church properties in the Norris Lake area.

2nd. With matters related to religious programs in new communities and replanned communities.

3rd. With matters concerning the education and enlightenment of our people about the T. V. A. program and its relation to the church and religion.

According to the recommendations of last year, relations have been established with the Home Missions Council. The chairman of your Commission was elected chairman of a local committee of the Home Missions Council to deal with the T. V. A.

This Committee of the Home Missions Council has worked at various plans for establishing religious leadership and work at Norris. Three denominations have offered to cooperate in financing such a work. Under certain limiting conditions, the Valley Authority also has offered to help financially. The choice of a minister of our denomination has been the predominating opinion of the Home Mission Council.

Another large difficult but effective piece of work has been done by the Chairman of the Commission in arranging for the sale of various church properties which will be flooded by Norris Lake. He has found the T. V. A. to be reasonable and fair in its appraisals.

The Commission met last May with leaders of Sevier County at the Murphy Collegiate Institute as guests of President W. C. Martin to represent the church's interests and offer its services in a proposed County Cooperative Organization of the type which the T. V. A. is sponsoring. The Commission rejoiced in the presence and leadership of M. A. Dawber of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension at this Sevierville meeting.

Through its chairman, your Commission has kept in close contact with the developing project of the Cumberland Mountain Subsistence Homesteads. This situation will illustrate the need of diligence and watchfulness by the church for at present the Cumberland Homesteads are closed to any organized religious establishment.

Educational leaders in the Conference have been generous in allowing the introduction of T. V. A. elements into their programs. The social and religious implications of the T. V. A. have been presented in courses or lectures at the Epworth League Institute, The Summer School of Ministerial Training, District Conferences, Sub-district Group Meetings; at Murphy Collegiate Institute, Tennessee Wesleyan College, and the University of Chattanooga. A further word concerning this last venture will not be out of place. For ten days the University conducted its Tennessee Valley Institute, at which the Tennessee Valley Project was presented to six thousand people in thirty round table discussions, and to eight thousand others in ten night audiences.

The Commission, you will remember, is an advisory body only. Authoritative agencies of the Denomination, Conference, local communities, local churches, and the T. V. A. determine all final action. Therefore in this advisory capacity the Commission recommends:

1. We wish to record our desire of and hereby tender our cooperation with the Tennessee Valley Authority in the progress of our work and program in the great project which they are leading in the Tennessee Valley.

2. Our T. V. A. Conference Commission also wishes to express its appreciation to the District Superintendent, J. M. Hampton for the thorough and proper manner in which he has taken care of our interests in his District with special reference to the church property involved in the construction of the Norris Dam and Reservoir.

3. We recommend that the District Superintendent of the Hariman District and the Subcommittee of this Commission be given power to act in the disposal of all property which will be affected by the building and filling of the Norris Dam and Reservoir.

4. That the extra expense which he has incurred be considered a debt on the monies which may be received from the sale of the properties involved.

5. That expense money be made available for salvaging such church buildings as shall be necessary.

6. That these expense monies be made available with the least possible delay.

7. That the Disciplinary rule be observed in the control of the money realized, with favorable preference in the use of this money for relocating churches in the Harriman District and other church projects on this water-shed.

Respectfully submitted by the Commission,

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

Since our Conference is overrun in certain sections with cheap and tawdry musical publications of certain commercial publishers and so-called "Normal training teachers"; which are not in keeping with our ideals and practices of worship. Further, our Religious Educational program includes a better worship program, which can not be attained with materials out of line with our purposes:

Be It Resolved:

That we, the Holston Conference, urge our pastors to use their influence in support of our program and to encourage our laymen to select such materials as are in keeping with our understanding of worship.

Further, that we pledge our loyalty and support to our Conference Board of Religious Education and their recommendation of worship materials.

BISHOP AND MRS. LEETE WELCOMED

Holston Conference gives glad and genuine welcome to the presidency of Bishop Frederick D. Leete and assures him of its high regard for his inspiring and constructive leadership as a Bishop in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

We are greatly gratified that Mrs. Leete is present to share in our hearty welcome and with Bishop Leete to renew the friendship and fellowship of other days.

May their coming bring to them as much happiness as it affords us!

REPORT ON EVANGELISM

We believe all men and women everywhere need Christ as a personal Saviour. It is the supreme business of ministers to be fishers of men. It is the supreme business of the Church to lead men and women, young people and boys and girls to Christ and help them live his way of life.

In every community men and women are away from God and outside the Christian Church. The need was probably never so great for a dynamic, deep vital evangelism as it is today.

We urge the use of all possible methods of evangelism, such as talking person to person and such as public evangelism. We believe that the total program of the local church should have a permanent and definite evangelistic note at all times. The Master said, "I am come to seek and save the lost."

May God give us as Methodists a new passion to seek and save and to help men and women to grow in the art of sharing their experience of Christ with others.

THE REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING FOR THE CONFERENCE YEAR ENDING OCTOBER 1934.

The Board of Ministerial Training feels that it has a weighty responsibility in carrying out the provisions of the Discipline concerning the scholastic training and examination of ministers seeking ordination, conference membership, and pastoral work. Because of such responsibility we make every endeavor to keep standards of instruction and of grading high, hoping that thereby we may do our share in producing a ministry acceptable to the church.

The Board would emphasize the following Disciplinary regulations:

1st. That no one can be a candidate for Reception on Trial until he has completed one year of college work measured in credit hours. This college work should be done in colleges which have scholastic standing equal to that required by our University Senate.

2nd. That students shall attend the Summer School of Ministerial Training held each year in June at Athens, Tennessee, for there only will examinations be given, except as provided by the Discipline concerning examinations for Reception on Trial.

The 1934 session of the Athens Summer School brought rich blessings to all who attended. The instruction exceeded that of past years. The fellowship and inspirational messages of Dr. C. W. Brashares of Dayton, Ohio, brought us into closer communion with the Great Teacher. For the concluding gathering of the School, that service known as "A Service for Such As Would Make or Renew Their Covenant with God" was used; and bound by such a covenant, faculty and students happily departed to their respective fields of labor.

One of the accomplishments of the Summer School was the completion of definite plans for the introduction of a graduate section to be established at next years session. The instructor chosen for this Graduate School was Professor F. Ernest Johnson of Columbia University and The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. Professor Johnson has a correspondence course sponsored by the Commission on Course of Study entitled "Christianity and the New Social Order." This will also be the subject of his instruction next June at Athens. We urge all preachers who have finished the Conference Course of Study to take this correspondence course with Professor Johnson, and then attend the Summer School to receive his personal instruction in the same. The Committee of the Board which is promoting this graduate work is M. M. Moore, R. C. Elzy, and the Chairman of the Board. All Preachers interested in this Graduate Course kindly communicate with this committee.

The Board is glad to note in its records that Brother T. O. Marshall has finished with a grade of A the Graduate Correspondence Course entitled "The Person and Work of Jesus Christ."

The Board urges that the relationship of Accepted Supply Pastors, established by the General Conference of 1932, with its privileges and responsibility be given more earnest attention by the brethren who supply our pulpits. The Discipline directs that all such brethren shall pursue one of the courses of study under the direction of this Board.

Once again we would call the attention of the Conference and its Cabinet to paragraph 201, section 7. The Board does not desire to be over-bearing in this matter. Rather, its only purpose is to carry out the seeming intention of our church that all pastors should have the blessings brought by directed study. Accepted Supply Pastors should attend the Summer School at Athens, and benefit by the instruction there given.

Deep appreciation is expressed by our Board for the guiding help of Dr. Allen MacRossie, Executive Secretary of the Commission on Courses of Study.

A further statement of appreciation is due the instructors of your Conference Board from the Chairman of the same. They have been diligent and painstaking in the performance of their labors as well as gracious in spirit.

The attention of the students in the courses is called to the following matters:

1st. That a change has been made in the fourth year subjects.

2nd. That the requirements stated in Directions and Helps should be followed exactly.

3rd. A careful reading of the Discipline and the Conference Minutes together with the Directions and Helps should give ample information as to how the student may proceed with his work. There is appended to this report (but printed elsewhere in the Minutes) a statement of the organization of the Board with a schedule showing the assignment of subjects and the proposed time of year when the work for each subject is to be done.

If the student needs any further direction he is urged to correspond with the Chairman or the Registrar of the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

R. A. KILBURN,
Chairman.

W. R. CURTIS,
Registrar.

THE REPORT OF THE KNOXVILLE DISTRICT BOARD OF CHURCH LOCATION TO THE HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE REGARDING OUR PROPERTY ON EAST MAIN AVENUE.

After a thorough study of the situation, we, the Knoxville District Board of Church Location, report to the Annual Conference that in our judgment the time has now come to sell our East Main Avenue Church, the parsonage, and the lot upon which both buildings stand. Our reasons for this decision are as follows:

(1) During the last several years the population of the community in which this property is located has been changing until now it is almost solidly Negro for several blocks in all directions. Ours is a church ministering exclusively to whites in a distinctly Negro community. We have only two families of active church workers living within four blocks of the church.

(2) A large proportion of the members of the East Main Avenue Church who live at a distance and who pay a predominant part of the church expenses have definitely decided to change their membership this autumn to other Methodist Episcopal churches of the city.

(3) Our church building on East Main Avenue is in desperate need of repairs. A new roof, a new furnace, and a new coat of paint must be had immediately if we are to carry on any longer where we are. With many of our strongest people leaving it will be difficult to finance these expensive repairs. For that matter, it would be unwise, even if the money could be raised, to spend such a sum on a building which all concerned realize must be abandoned in the not far distant future.

(4) We have now an opportunity to dispose of this property for what we consider a fair price. The East Main Avenue Baptist Church, colored, offers us $5,500. This church has in hand right now the sum of $1,000 which they offer as an initial payment. It proposes then to pay $500 every six months, including interest, until the debt is liquidated. This is a church of over 350 members. Its services are attended by large crowds. Investigation by members of our committee, the recommendation of such white leaders of Knoxville Baptists as O. E. Turner of the First Baptist Church and W. B. Harvey of Bell Avenue, and the demonstrated ability of the church to raise $1,000 in less than two months when its people were not sure that the property could be bought, convince us that the East Main Avenue Baptist Church can meet its payments on this debt.

We recommend, secondly, that inasmuch as we have some twenty-five Methodist families living southeast of our East Main church for whom it would be inconvenient, and for some virtually impossible, to attend regularly any other one of our churches in Knoxville that a new building be provided for them if they wish it. We do not think however that any member of this badly scattered organization should feel bound by any loyalty to support a building program or any other continuation of church work in the East Main Avenue section of Knoxville. To the contrary, now that the time has come for the permanent placing of all the membership of this church and not any mere temporary re-arrangement, we recommend that all the people of the East Main organization now feel entirely free to unite with whatever Methodist Episcopal Church of Knoxville they think they will be happy in permanently.

We recommend, finally, that if the group mentioned above chooses to rebuild it may, after agreement with the Committee on Church Location as to a suitable site, have the refusal of whatever money is derived from the sale of the present property.

*We recommend that the Annual Conference empower the local board of trustees to sell and urge upon it the advisability of selling but at the same time to assure said board that the Annual Conference has no present intention of exercising any authority to take the matter out of the hands of the local board.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. RAGAN, D. S.
CHAS. G. BAKER, Sec.
GEO. J. CRESWELL,

* Minutes of the meeting of the Conference Board of Church Location: A motion was made and carried that the report of the Knoxville Board of Church Location be the recommendation of the Conference Board with the amendment which is printed above and now appears as the last paragraph of the Knoxville District report.

RESOLUTION IN BEHALF OF THE SPECIAL OFFERING OF $300,000.00 FOR CRITICAL CHURCH DEBT CASES.

Whereas, the various Conference Reports show that 7,865 churches in Methodism carry a Church and Parsonage Property debt of $68,000,000 of which number approximately 5,000 are in acute financial distress; and

Whereas, 24 Churches have already been sold and about 400 other Church properties are in foreclosure, or in the shadows of such a calamity; and

Whereas, the World Service Commission in annual session in Chicago, Illinois, July 10th to 12th, 1934, gave this critical situation most careful and thorough consideration, and authorized a "Special Offering" of $300,000 for which, World Service credit may be given, to apply on threatened Church Property Projects on certain conditions and with the approval of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, therefore, be it resolved:

1. That we, as a conference, pledge hearty cooperation to the Church Extension Department of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension in the efforts to put forth in securing this "Special Offering;"

2. That we recommend to all our churches the observance of a "Sanctuary Day" on some suitable Sunday, preferably on the second Sunday in January, 1935, for which occasion we call on the pastors to preach a sermon on "The Influence and Importance of the Sanctuary in the Community" and take the authorized "Save-the-Sanctuary Special Offering" and send it to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension;

3. That a copy of this resolution shall be sent to the office of the Superintendent of the Department of Church Extension of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension with the notice that we will expect him and his committee on Procedure and Promotion to give us as much assistance as possible in the preparation for the "Save-the-Sanctuary Sunday" and the securing of a generous offering.

Conference Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Holston Conference, by its Officers.

October 18, 1934.

REPORT OF THE WORLD SERVICE COUNCIL.

To Holston Conference, October 17-21, 1934

First: We recognize the upward trend in the financial world and the fact that there is more current cash available and also better credit which has developed quite rapidly in the last six months.

Second: We recognize the great moral and spiritual disturbance among the nations of the world; the restlessness of the political situations abroad and the fact that the coming of a better financial condition has not helped the moral and spiritual conditinos.

Third: We believe we see in several major movements among the churches the rapidly growing knowledge that only a great spiritual awakening around the world and among all peoples can save the world from another terrific and disastrous war.

THEREFORE: We recommend a new sacrificial interest in all of our missionary efforts; that we organize as never before to raise our full WORLD SERVICE assessment, whatever else we do.

THAT TO ACCOMPLISH THIS AND TO REACH OUR GOALS, we put on a fair and square presentation of our world obligations at the very beginning of the year by a series of sermons on the call of the world and that we present an opportunity to every member to sign some amount weekly to our World Service program.

We believe that a fair presentation of the call of the world will not injure but will help in a very definite way all other causes in our local church. Let us not be deceived by that slogan, "people have only so much to give," therefore if they give it to the World Service our local budget will be hurt.

We recommend the acceptance of the assignment of $19,922 as our World Service goal.

I cite the case of Big Springs with 137 members and only about 50 contributing members which under the leadership of Rev. and Mrs. Alden Eddy through answer to prayer raised a total budget of debt, interest, World Service, and their local budget of more than $5,000 in cash. This was done with the help of good friends also outside of the denomination and the local church. But this was sacrificial giving and it requires just that to put across our projects.

This accomplishment is very clear evidence of cash in all of our communities and that prayer and sacrificial giving will accomplish remarkable results.

We are asking that the churches designate the full amount allowed for our Conference.

Memoirs

REV. THOMAS E. GOODMAN

Thomas E. Goodman was born in North Carolina, January 1, 1874. When a small boy he came to Tennessee to live. He was married to Minnie Trantham November 26, 1890. To their union seven children were born, two of whom died in infancy. After a long period of illness Minnie Trantham Goodman passed to her eternal reward January 11, 1918.

On April 23, 1920 he was married to Mary Blanche Milburn to which union two children were born both of whom survive.

Brother Goodman gave his heart to Christ in early life and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. He later felt the call to preach and was licensed as a local preacher, serving as a supply pastor at Unicoi for three years and Rutledge for two years. In 1914 he was admitted into the Holston Annual Conference on trial; into Full Membership in 1916. He was ordained Deacon in 1916 by Bishop Bristol and Elder in 1918 by Bishop Bristol. He has since served as the Pastor of the following charges: Baileytown Circuit, 1914-'15; Morristown Circuit, 1916; Limestone Circuit, 1917; South Greeneville Circuit, 1918-'19; Rogersville Circuit, 1920-'21; Fall Branch Circuit, 1922-'24; Surgoinsville Circuit, 1925-'26; Chucky Circuit, 1927-'28; Telford Circuit, 1929-'31, and Morristown Circuit, 1932 until his death, May 30, 1934.

Brother Goodman contracted typhoid fever and had been confined to his bed since January 12, 1934. His afflictions were severe, but he bore them with patience and Christian fortitude, sustained by the tender care of loved ones and friends, the numerous visits of former parishioners and the unexcelled loyalty and devotion of the members of the churches of the Morristown Circuit, but most of all by his unwavering faith in Jesus Christ whom he has preached not only by precept but also by his daily life.

He is survived by his widow, Mary Blanche Goodman and seven children. They are Mrs. Guy Mitchell and Mrs. C. H. Hamblin of Greeneville, Mrs. Robert Horton and James M. Goodman of Unicoi, Mrs. Walter McCurry of Erwin, Eula and Mildred of Milburntown. Three brothers, T. S. Goodman of Oklahoma, Aaron and Doc of Greene County and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Gibson and Mrs. Anna DeBusk of Greene County.

Another name has been added to the roll of the sainted dead of his Conference; another pilot has reached the shore; another soldier has gone to headquarters for higher orders. Somewhere in the realm of purity, light and love, we will find him still active in building the Kingdom of God.

DR. JOHN M. EMERT

Like the golden autumn leaves, beckoning to earth for a quiet resting place; no one knowing which leaf might drop first, until the ripest leaps from its companion foliage; so, it was with our beloved brother and friend, Dr. John M. Emert.

Last Friday, so far as any one knew, he was in his usual good health. Saturday morning, October 6th, when he awoke, the first signal of failing health was discovered when he began to dress himself. He found that his strength was well nigh departed, and for the first time in his life his heart seemed to be weary of its 76 years and four months of incessant action. Soon his physical body was stricken with pain, and in four fleeting, anxious days, the golden leaf fell to earth from its branch of life, and his immortal soul returned to God from whom it had come.

His sudden and unexpected going leaves his loved ones and friends stunned and bewildered. We can scarcely believe that this valiant soldier of Jesus Christ, for more than a half a century, will be seen among us on earth no more.

Dr. Emert was born in Townsend, Tenn., June 12, 1858. Educated in Maryville College. Taught in the public schools of Blount County several years. Married Miss Miranda Elizabeth Bright more than fifty years ago. To this union were born three sons and two daughters: Mrs. C. C. Menzler of Nashville, Clyde B. of Maryville, Roy N. of Sweetwater. Rollo A. of Athens, and Mrs. R. Terry Pemberton of Cleveland, Ohio. These with his wife, six grand children, and a brother, George W. Emert of Walland, survive him to mourn their loss inexpressible.

Brother Emert was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church when a young man. Joined the Holston Annual Conference at Maryville, 1893, being an honored member for forty one years. He served the following charges: Wilson Gap, Wells Springs, Jellico, Second Church Knoxville, Superintendent of Harri-man District, First Church Athens two pastorates, First Church Johnson City, Maryville, and Park City Knoxville. Upon closing his second pastorate in Athens, 1928, he moved to his home on South Jackson Street, from which he took leave for his coronation, Wednesday evening at 6:45 o'clock.

Dr. Emert was a member of General Conference 1924. Served four years as a member of the Book Committee. Has been chairman of the McMinn County Red Cross for years. He was a member of the Masonic Order, Lodge 244, Knoxville. Was Past Master in two orders.

Dr. Emert was a strong preacher of the gospel of the "old school." A successful evangelist-pastor. A fine church financier. He was an ardent prohibitionist campaigner for state wide prohibition in Tennessee. He was a man of deep conviction, and a fearless defender of what he thought to be right. To say he will be greatly missed by his loved ones and friends, is unnecessary. The cause of righteousness has lost a staunch friend. However, he is entitled to a well deserved rest, and we shall bow in humble submission to the will of our kind Heavenly Father, by saying, "Thy will be done."

Respectfully,

WILLIAM M. DYE.

The funeral was conducted in First Church, Athens, Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Lewis, Dr. W. M. Dye and Dr. O. R. Tarwater officiating. Burial was in Cedar Grove cemetery, Athens.

MRS. G. W. MATNEY

Before her marriage to the Rev. Greene W. Matney forty-two years ago she was Miss Elizabeth C. Donnelly, daughter of Major and Mrs. R. H. M. Donnelly, of Chuckey, Tennessee.

In early childhood Mrs. Matney was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in which Church she lived a most faithful and beautiful Christian life until the day of her coronation.

For twenty-two years of her married life she entered actively into every phase of Sunday School and Church work with her husband and was greatly loved by the people in all the charges where they lived and served. One of the fine things she did, which is often overlooked in the average life of the minister's wife, was to make the parsonage home bright, sweet, inviting and a social center for the people of the church she was called upon to serve.

The last twenty years of her life were spent as an invalid. It was a great grief to her when she had to give up going with and helping her husband which they both loved so well to do together. During that long period she knew suffering. She also learned to be sweetly patient and at all times kind and gentle. During the last months of her painful illness every person who entered her bedroom went away bearing a heavenly benediction inspired by her spirit of resignation and perfect trust in God and the life to come when she knew the end was near. Just a few nights before she went away she called her husband and children into the bedroom for a farewell lovefeast and she said: "I am going soon on a little journey. It isn't far. I can feel the breath of heaven upon me now. How sweet and beautiful to come to the end of mortality and no shadows anywhere, but light, just beautiful light all around. I'll be right there at the gates of pearl to greet and welcome you when you come to join me." Then turning her eyes to the picture of her noble son on the wall, the son who went away to the World War and remained on Flanders' Field, she said: "Just think of it. I'll soon see again my darling boy who went away to give his life in a great cause and couldn't come back!" And she went just as she had lived all her life, with perfect faith in God and the glories of the hereafter.

Funeral services were conducted at the home by the writer, assisted by Dr. J. E. Milburn and Dr. J. W. Broyles in the presence of a throng which packed the house, the porches, the yard and sidewalk. Her body was laid to rest in Happy Valley Memorial Cemetery beneath a wealth of flowers to await the coming of her Lord and Master and the resurrection morning when it will be light and heaven everywhere.

WILLIAM F. PITTS.

JOSEPH S. STRANGE

Joseph S. Strange was born in Jefferson County, Tennessee, Dec. 8, 1859 and was called to his Heavenly Reward from his home in Fountain City, Tennessee, August 14, 1934.

Prayer was offered at the home by Rev. J. T. Bird and the funeral was conducted at St. James Church, Chattanooga, by Rev. C. W. Sullivan. Burial was in beautiful Chattanooga Memorial Park where his body was laid to rest, there to await the Resurrection Morn.

He is survived by his wife, four children, one sister and a number of relatives. He was converted when sixteen years of age at Lawson Chapel, Fair Garden Circuit, under the ministry of Rev. J. B. Seaton. Twenty-one years later, while on the Little River Circuit, he professed sanctification and preached and maintained the Wesleyan doctrines throughout his ministry.

He was a lover of God's word, a lover of the songs of Zion, faithful and fearless in his preaching of the gospel, always true to the vows taken when he was admitted to the Holston Annual Conference. As husband and father, as neighbor and friend, as follower of Christ and preacher of His Gospel he leaves behind a good testimony.

He was licensed to preach at the District Conference held at Thorn Grove in 1890 and was admitted on trial in the Holston Conference in 1891. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Ninde in 1891, Elder by Bishop Foster in 1894.

During his ministry he served the following charges: Emory Gap, Hamilton, Little River, Beaver and Lenoir, Elmyer, New Salem, Morristown Circuit, Thorn Grove, Jones Chapel, Erie and Chatata, Loudon, Knoxville Circuit, Beaver Ridge, Thorn Grove, Rose Hill, Tellico Plains, and Lenoir City Circuit. Retired, 1921.

Servant of God, well done; thy glorious warfare's past; the battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crown at last.

OUR SAINTED DEAD

"These all died in the faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth."
